This Cyberleader, with black helmet and yucky brain, met the Doctor in London, 1851.

CYBERLEADER

Cut out and keep to build up your collection of who's who in Doctor Who!

Donna's family

Why do strange things keep happening to them?

Who are they?

Donna Noble is a former companion of the Doctor. Her mum's name is Sylvia. Donna's grandad, Wilfred Mott, has lived with the family at their home in Chiswick, west London, since Donna's dad, Geoff, died.

Donna's always had a strong character, which has caused lots of arguments with her mum. But she's the apple of her grandad's eye!

Donna and Geoff

Meeting the Doctor

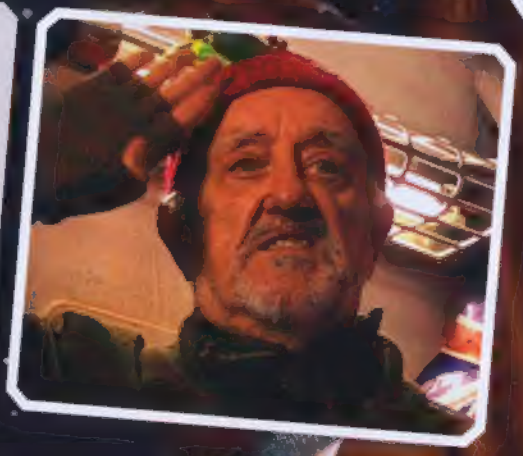
The Nobles first met the Doctor on Donna's wedding day, after she vanished while walking up the aisle. Since then, the mysterious time traveller has continued to pop up in their lives – but Sylvia is never very pleased to see him!

Geoff

Wilf

Chance encounter?

When the Doctor beamed down to Earth from the Titanic, he bumped into a man in a red hat who was selling newspapers – Wilf! The Doctor didn't know he was Donna's grandad, so was surprised when they met again later.



DID YOU KNOW?

Donna's dad, Geoff, was originally in Partners in Crime. But the actor who played him sadly died, so his scenes were refilmed to feature Wilf instead.

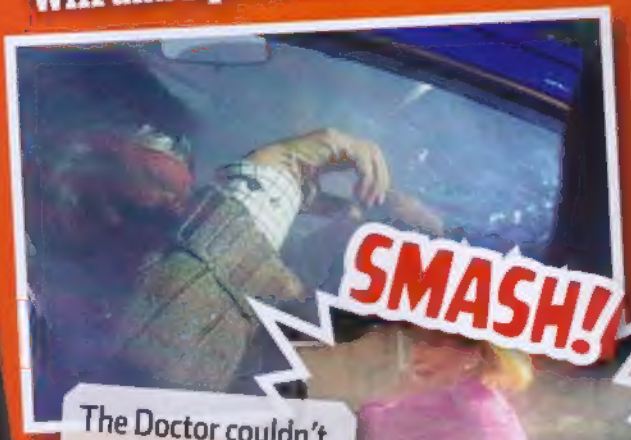
LOADS OF INFO EVERY WEEK!

ALIENS BEWARE!

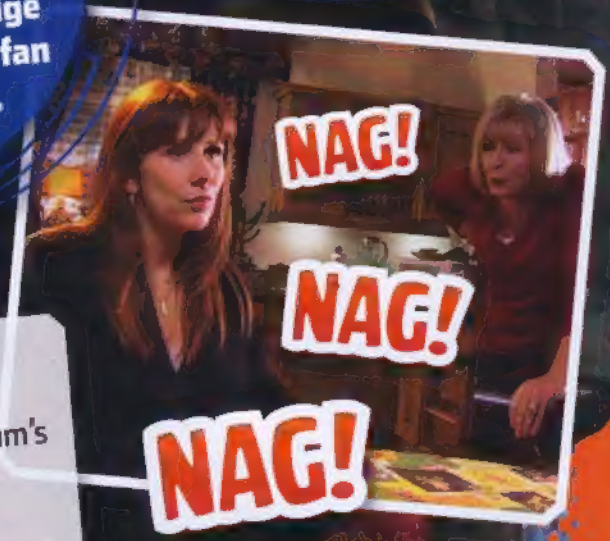
Wilf and Sylvia will sort you out!

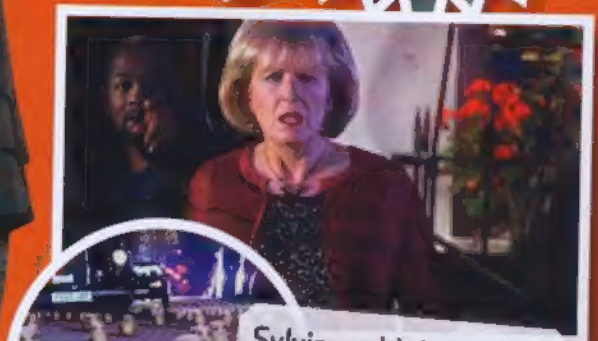
Wilf is a brave old soldier. He was once in the Parachute Regiment and wears its badge on his cap. He's a fan of astronomy.

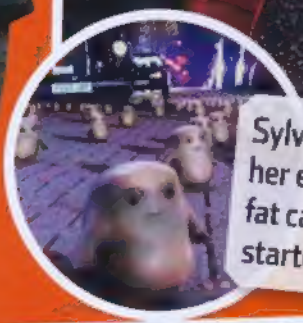
Sylvia can be a bit of a nag, but she loves her daughter and only wants the best for her.



The Doctor couldn't rescue Wilf from the ATMOS fumes, but Syvia saved the day with a handy axe!







Sylvia couldn't believe her eyes when people's fat came to life and started walking around!

Back home

Donna is now back at her Mum's after the Doctor had to hide every single memory of her travels through time and space to save her life. Wilf and Sylvia can never tell her about the amazing adventures she had.

WHAT'S THE LINK?

The Doctor suspects that some unknown force keeps drawing him to Donna and her family. He's going to meet them again soon – but why?

When the Daleks invaded, Wilf thought he could put one out of action with his paint gun!

This Doctor is chatty, cheeky and cheerful – but there are no second chances for those who get on the wrong side of him. A lot of his good friends are gone now, so he often feels lonely.

What does he wear?

He has two favourite suits – one blue, one brown. He also wears a black tuxedo for special occasions!

How will he change?

Everyone knows the Tenth Doctor is going to regenerate soon, but how it happens is a massive secret! We once saw him start to change, but he managed to stop the process before it was too late.

TOP 10 FREAKY FATES!

10 L.I.N.D.A united!

The members of L.I.N.D.A had been disappearing one by one, but their reunion wasn't a happy occasion – they all ended up inside the Abzorbaloff!

9 Upgraded!

Poor Yvonne Hartman worked out that the Cybermen removed human brains and put them into metal heads – just before her own brain was scooped out. Ouch!

8 Ghosting

After Miss Evangelista was gobbled up by the Vashta Nerada, she survived for a few minutes as a 'data ghost' held inside her communicator. Scary!

7 Cyber shock

If you ever feel a Cyber hand on your shoulder, you're in big trouble. The steel soldier is about to fry you with a blast of electricity! Mrs Moore was a victim of this.

6 Skin trouble

Lady Cassandra ended up as just a piece of stretched skin which needed lots of moisturising. When she dried out, her skin tore apart and splatted the Doctor and Rose!

5 Watery doom

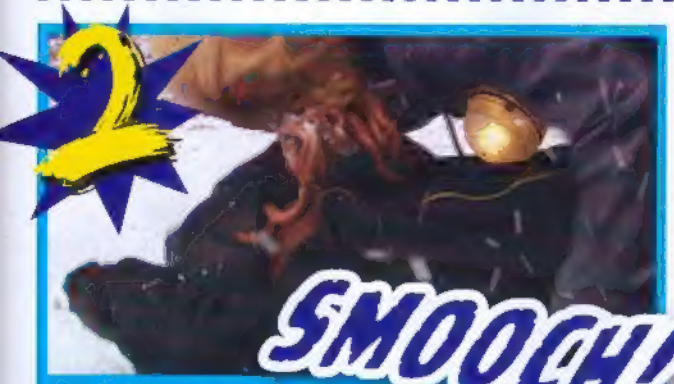
Chomping on a carrot was the last thing Andy Stone ever did. It had been infected by the water on Mars, so Andy transformed into a horrible, drooling monster.

4 Deadly whip

When Danny Llewellyn found himself on the Sycorax ship, he begged them for compassion. But they showed no mercy – the Sycorax Leader lashed him with an electric whip.

3 Wormhole woe

The unlucky bus driver thought he'd found a short cut home through a wormhole – but only his skeleton made it!



2 Kiss of death!

Imagine how you'd feel if the last thing you ever saw was a gross Ood giving you a big slobbery snog with its fronds! That was the fate of this unlucky guard.

1 Half man, half Dalek

Mr Diagoras suffered the most fearsome fate of all. He was dragged inside Dalek Sec's casing and when he came out, he had a Dalek mutant for a head!

Davros plans to destroy the whole universe, and the Doctor needs his companions help to stop him!

JOURNEY'S END

ESSENTIAL INFO!

[illegible]

TURN OVER FOR THE WHOLE STORY!

WHO'S WHO?

Rose Tyler is reunited with the Doctor – but he starts to regenerate!

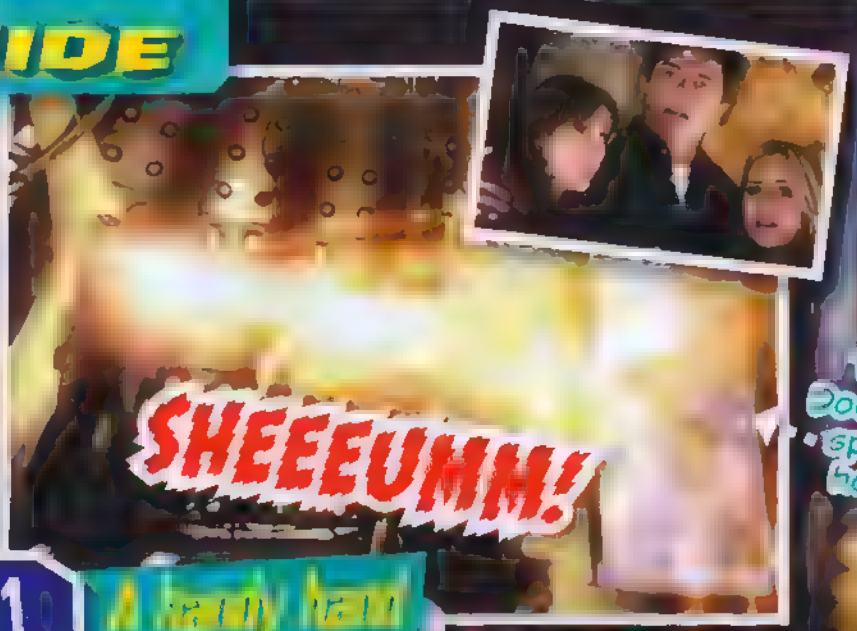
Martha Jones is working alone as she tries to stop the Daleks.

Captain Jack leaves his Torchwood team to help the Doctor.

Sarah Jane Smith has her second encounter with Davros.

Mickey Smith is Rose's old boyfriend and is helping to defend Earth.

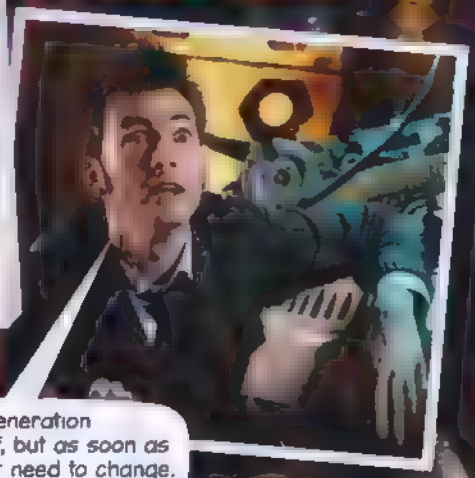
Davros wants his Daleks to be the only living creatures in the universe!



The Doctor's spare hand

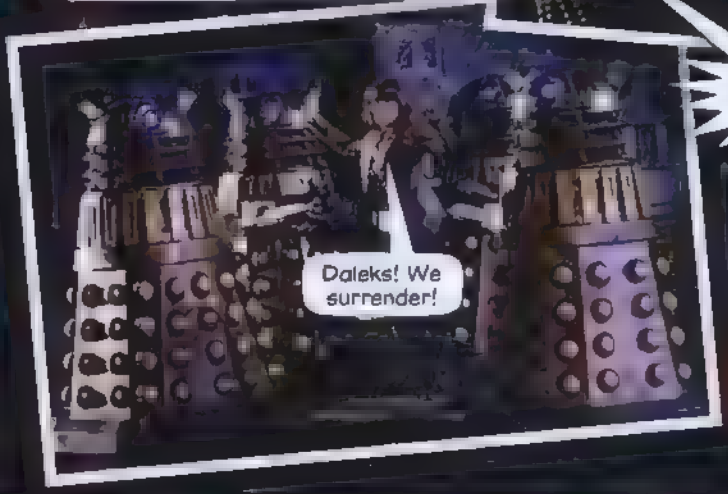
1 A handy hand

In the middle of his regeneration, the Doctor suddenly drains off the energy into his spare hand. His companions are shocked enough to see him regenerate, but they're even more amazed when his body doesn't change!



2 Hijacked TARDIS

The Daleks take the TARDIS aboard an enormous space station called the Crucible. Sarah Jane is saved from the Daleks by Mickey Smith and Jackie Tyler. She then gives herself up, hoping the Daleks will take her to the Crucible, too.



3 Duplicate Doctor

Donna gets trapped alone in the TARDIS and the Daleks throw it into the Crucible's fiery core! With the room exploding around her, Donna is strangely drawn to the Doctor's hand. The energy escapes and the hand grows into another Doctor – the Duplicate Doctor!

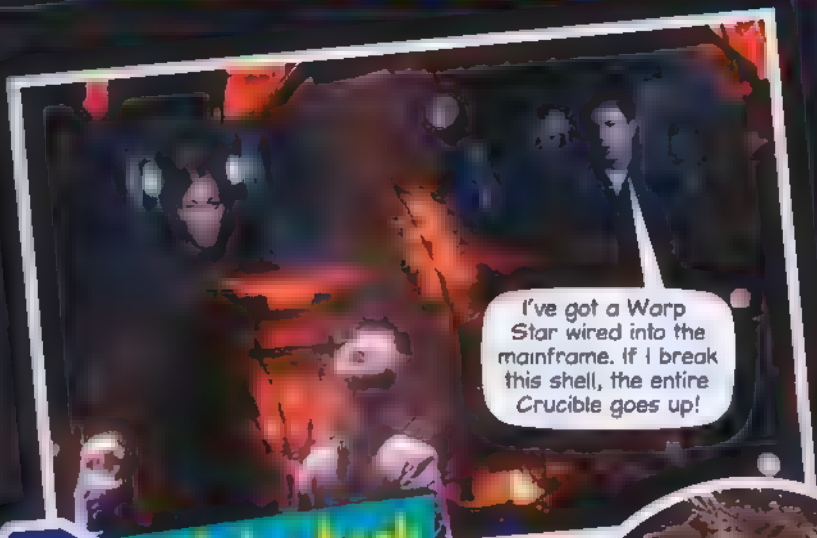
4 Reality Bomb

Thinking the TARDIS is destroyed, the real Doctor meets Davros and discovers his mad plan. Davros is going to use the 27 stolen planets to transmit an energy wave throughout the universe – the Reality Bomb – which will annihilate everything in its path!

DID YOU KNOW?

The Duplicate Doctor is part human and only has one heart!

TURN OVER FOR MORE!

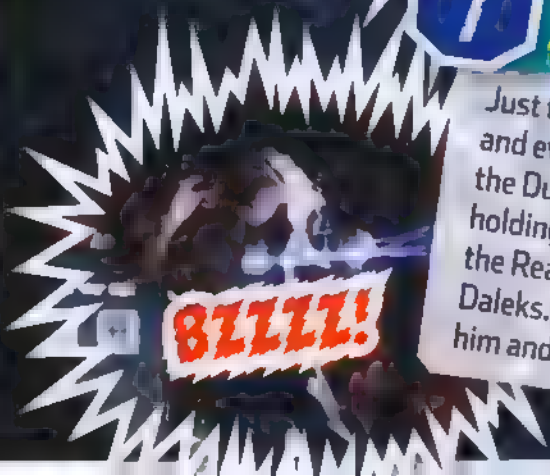


5 Fighting back

The Doctor's companions suddenly pop up on Davros's screen. Martha threatens to use the Osterhagen Key, which will set off nuclear warheads on Earth and blow up the planet! Captain Jack has a trick up his sleeve, too, but the Doctor's not happy.

6 Detonation

Before the Doctor's friends know what's happening, the Supreme Dalek transports them all into Davros's vault and they lose all their weapons. Now, no one can stop the countdown to the end of the universe!



7 Zapped!

Just then, the TARDIS materialises and everyone is gobsmacked to see the Duplicate Doctor! He runs out, holding a gadget which will turn the Reality Bomb against the Daleks. But Davros stops both him and Donna in their tracks!

8 Donna to the rescue

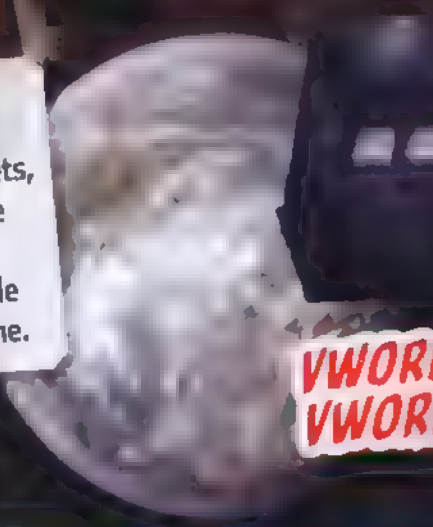
With just seconds to detonation, something strange happens to Donna. Thanks to the Doctor's hand and its energy, Donna is now half human, half Time Lord! She starts flicking lots of switches and stops the Reality Bomb. She even sees off the Daleks!

Macrotransmission of a K-filter wavelength blocking Dalek weaponry!

KABOOM!

9 Towed home

Donna uses the Daleks' Time Vortex Magnetron to return the stolen planets, but the controls get destroyed before it's Earth's turn! With the help of his friends, though, the Doctor is able to use the TARDIS to tow Earth home.



VWORP! VWORP!

10 Goodbye, Donna

After taking everyone home, the Doctor leaves Rose and the Duplicate Doctor in a parallel universe. Tragically, Donna can't cope with the Time Lord part of her brain, so the Doctor has to wipe her memory and take her home, too. He is left to travel on his own.

Doctor, please! Don't make me go back.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Ood had a prophecy about Donna's transformation. They called her the Doctor Donna!

THE DOCTOR'S DATA

The Flood

What is it?

The Flood is a very nasty and clever alien virus frozen in an ice field on the planet Mars. It is woken up when humans from Earth set up a base on the planet.

How does it spread?

Normally, all water is filtered and checked but when the filter breaks, the dangerous virus escapes. One drop of water is all it takes to convert a human. When one of the crew washes a carrot in unfiltered water, he transforms into a scary monster almost immediately.

What does it want?

It's simple. The creatures want Earth – a planet full of water. They attempt to convert everyone they encounter, but they are destroyed when Captain Adelaide Brooke blows up the base.

WATCH OUT FOR...

Cracked skin around the mouth and water flowing out of your body. These are sure signs that the Flood has got you!

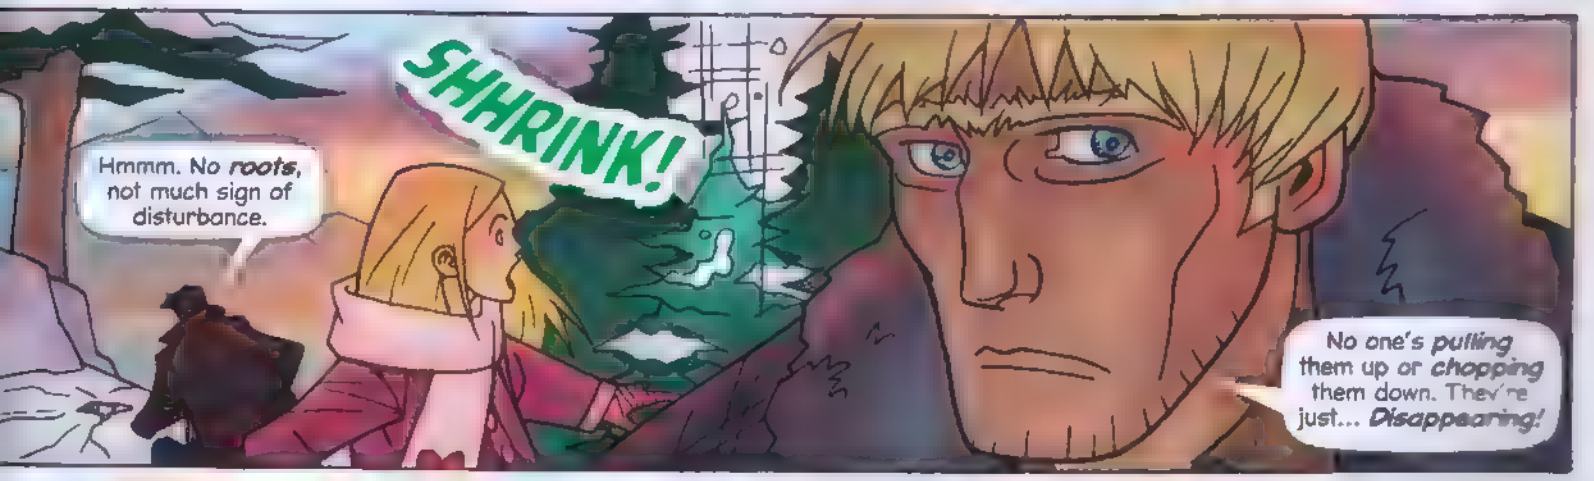
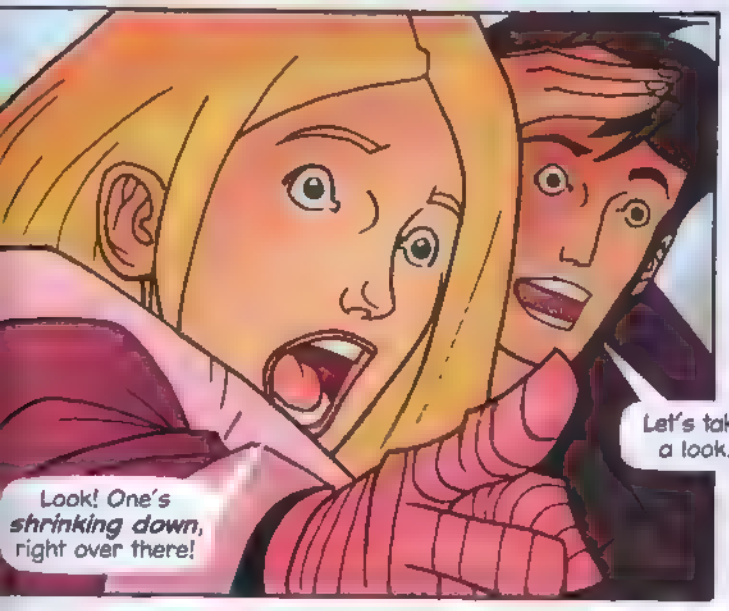
DOCTOR · WHO
THE GOATS OF CHRISTMAS PAST
Can Christmas trees travel in time, Doctor? I don't want the needles to fall off before we get to my granny's.
Don't worry, Heather. Nothing's as good as Norwegian wood, it'll be fine!
Hello! Any chance of buying a tree today?
Norway, December 1965.
Story EDDIE ROBSON
Art JOHN ROSS
Colours ALAN CRADDOCK



SHHRINK!
Hmmm. No roots, not much sign of disturbance.
No one's pulling them up or chopping them down. They're just... Disappearing!



Look! One's shrinking down, right over there!
Let's take a look.

How can someone steal these hulking great trees without being seen or heard?

MBEEEH!
What's that? Some kind of goat?
Aaah... A Capranom! I've heard of them, but never seen one. It is a similar species to the goat, actually.

They consume a massive amount of food in one go by shrinking it down, then they store the energy. They're like living batteries, I suppose.
They're often used as electricity generators. I wonder how it got here?
BZZZT!

Naah! They only do that with food. Hey there, little fella! Don't be afraid...
It's not going to shrink us with its shrink-ray horns, is it?
MUNCH!

No no no, come back! We won't hurt you!
Look, there are more. They'll munch through this whole forest if we don't do something!

They seem very focused on their food. It made sure it grabbed its meal before it ran...
So come on then – have you got a plan?
I think so, Heather. But we'll have to grab something from the TARDIS...

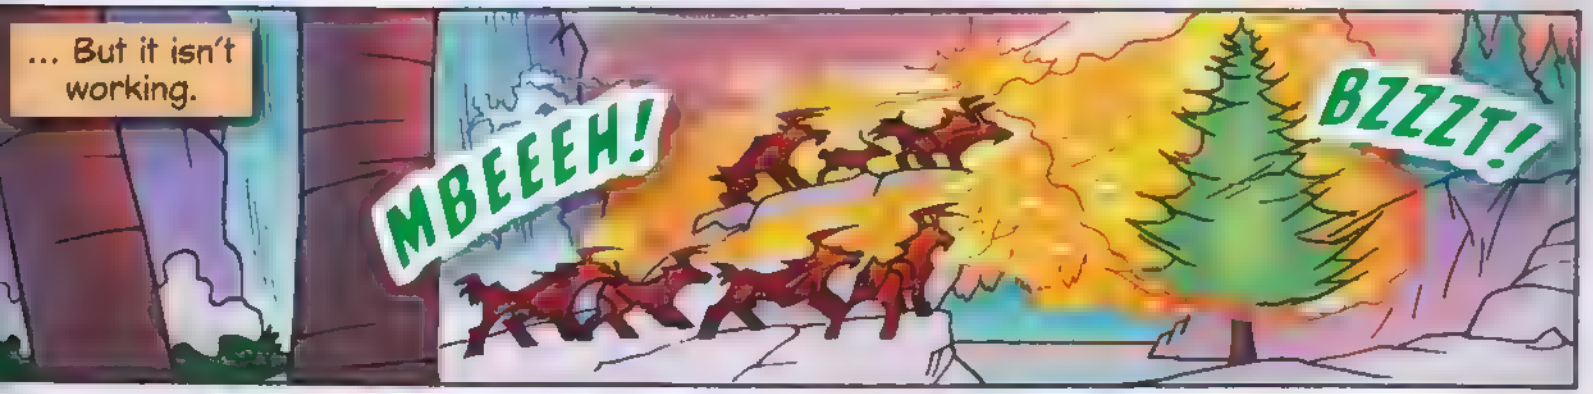
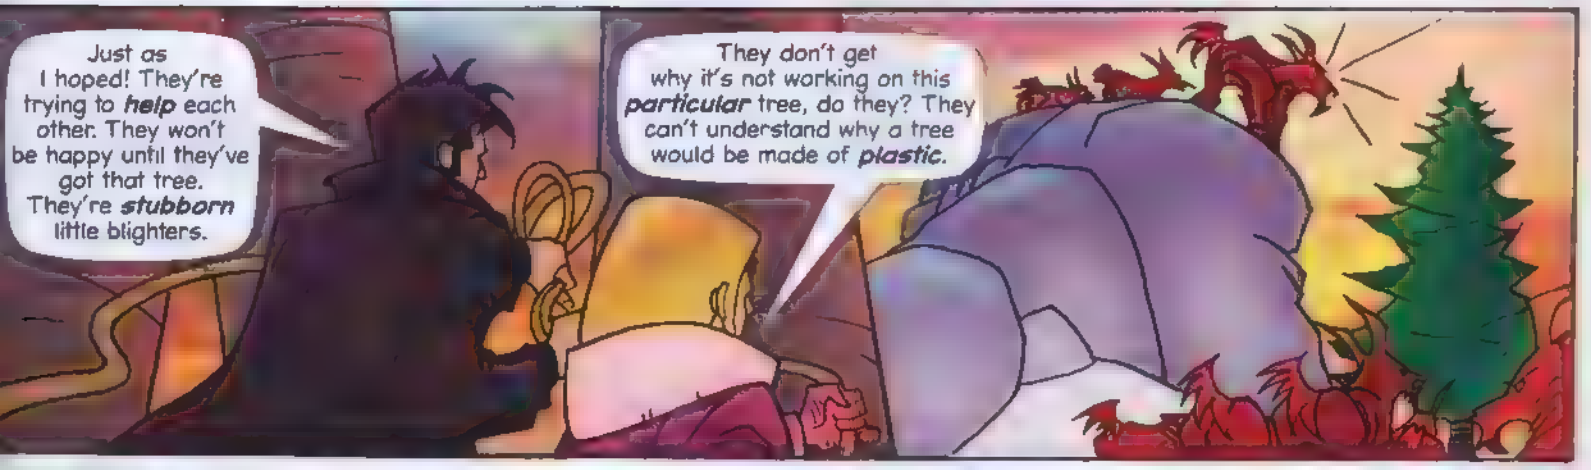
Later, the Capranom try to shrink another tree...
BZZZT!

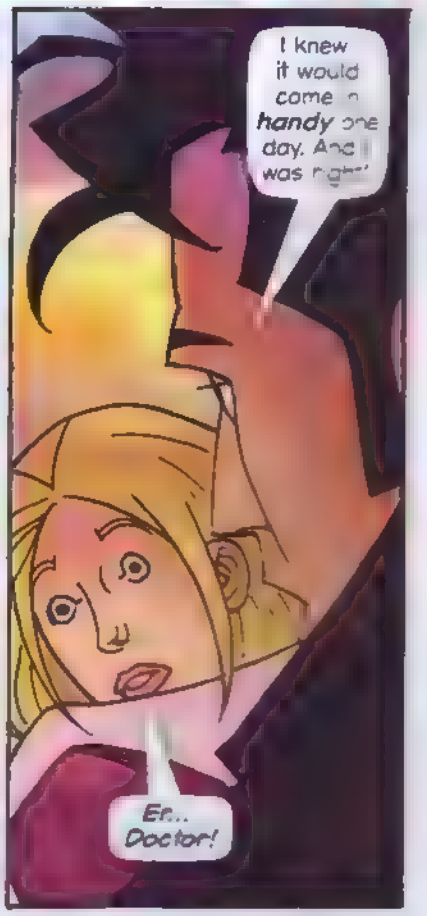


... But it isn't working.
MBEEEH!
BZZZT!



Just as I hoped! They're trying to help each other. They won't be happy until they've got that tree. They're stubborn little blighters.
They don't get why it's not working on this particular tree, do they? They can't understand why a tree would be made of plastic.

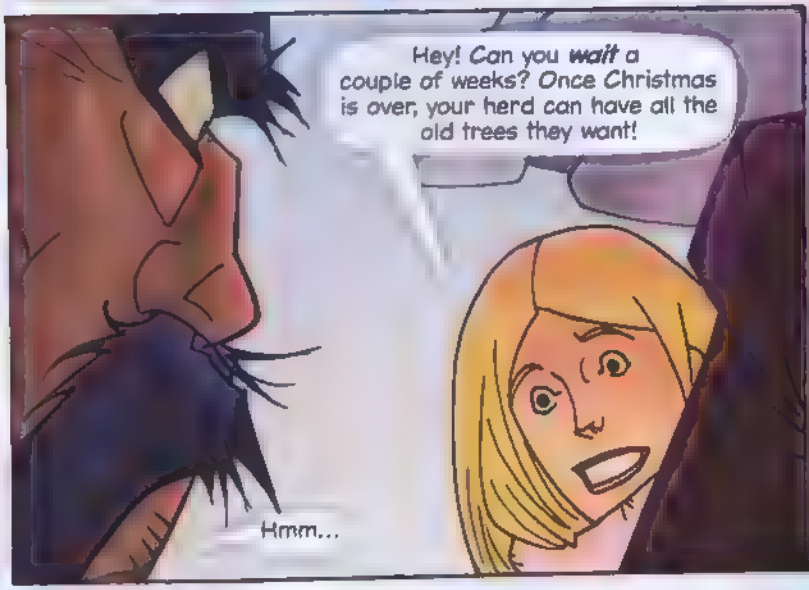
I'm not sure how long they'll stick at it, so let's round them up while they're still distracted.
MBEEEH!
Why do you have a giant plastic tree in the TARDIS anyway?



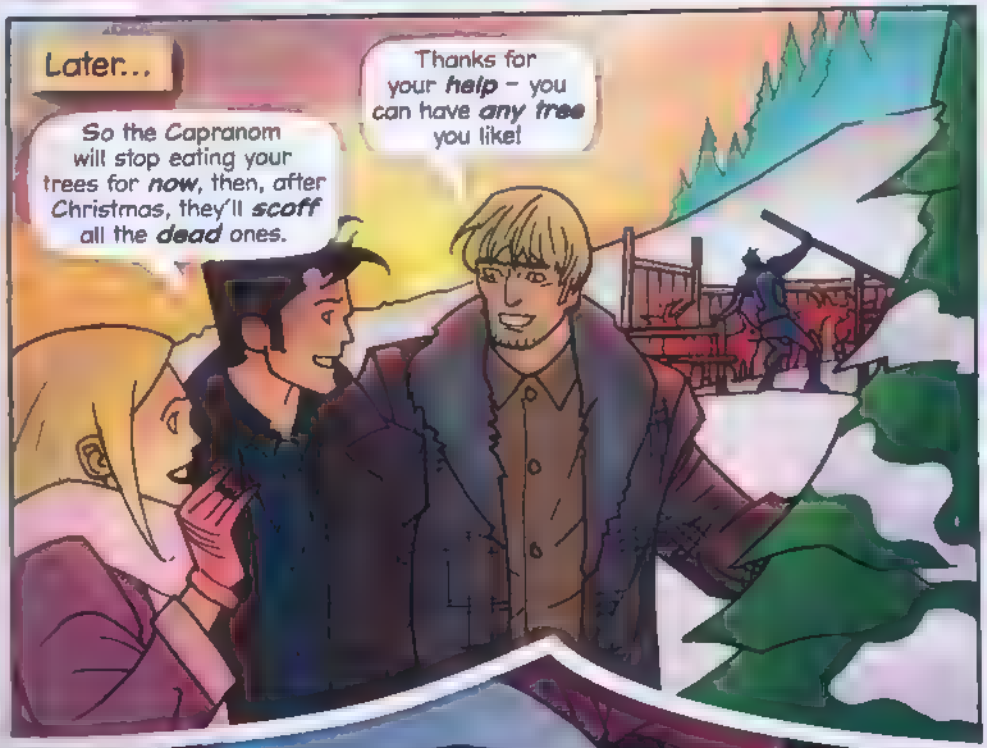
I knew it would come in handy one day. And I was right!
Er... Doctor!

Hold it right there. I've come halfway across the galaxy in a smelly ship with that lot. I'm not letting you steal them!

We don't like rustlers where I come from.
Calm down, big fella – we're not stealing them. We just wanted to stop them eating all the trees. It'll ruin Christmas!



Hey! Can you wait a couple of weeks? Once Christmas is over, your herd can have all the old trees they want!
Hmm...



Later...
So the Capranom will stop eating your trees for now, then, after Christmas, they'll scoff all the dead ones.
Thanks for your help – you can have any tree you like!

Next stop – Granny McCrimmon's house!

NEXT WEEK!

Doctor Who sits within BBC Worldwide's Global Brands division and has a commercial portfolio across DVD, merchandising, digital download and publishing (magazines, books and audiobooks). The show is available internationally from 93 broadcasters in 47 territories, from Spain to Serbia, Israel to Iceland. Since the new series began in 2005, over 3 million DVDs, over 1.5 million adult titles from BBC Books and 1.3 million children's books from Penguin and over 600,000 audiobooks have been sold, while 1.5m people have toured the Doctor Who Touring Exhibition. The brand is consistently one of the UK's top ten licenses, and the Doctor Who Annual 2009 was the number 2 best-selling annual in the Children's Bookscan charts. Children's magazine Doctor Who Adventures sells 57,000 copies every week, making it the bestselling children's title in terms of retail sales value, while downloads of the series regularly reach number one on iTunes. With the arrival of the 11th Doctor, played by Matt Smith, BBC Worldwide is currently looking at a range of commercial products to extend audiences enjoyment beyond the television programme.
